

Calling all Kids – Grades 1 to 8

Exciting New Book Project

You Can Be a Published Author!

Welcome to Time Capsule – 2035

We all know how fast the world is changing. Canadians are signing up to go to the moon, we're developing cars that drive themselves, while fingerprint technology and retinal scans will soon replace our need for passwords. What could possibly be next?

Press Here to Start Publishing has issued a challenge for children across Canada, to think about the future and submit their predictions on how they see the world in the year 2035.

A collection of the best entries from kids of all ages will be published in an exciting new book entitled, Time Capsule – 2035.

Rules:

- Open to all students in Canada, grades 1-8
- Includes essays, stories and poems to max of 200 words
- Original artwork optional
- Teachers can submit classroom entries
- Submit online or by mail
- Entries can be typed or neatly handwritten
- Final entry deadline, MARCH 31, 2014

Not sure what to do next? Go to the website for more details and HOT TIPS for Getting Started. Updates will be posted on the blog.

www.pressheretostartpublishing.com